

Endoscopy of the lower urinary tract confirms a tear in the urethra. This is a common cause of blood in the urine of stallions and geldings. Surgery can be performed to temporarily relieve the pressure on the torn tissue, allowing it to heal.

